night before last with three Chinamen who had been arrested at a ranch on the San Pedro for being in the United States unlawfully. They evidently having smuggled themselves across the line. Today Judge Davis will doubtless make some disposition of their cases.—Tucson Star.

Rev. Lawrence Reynolds of Mitchell, Indiana, has been appointed by the M. E. Church, South, to do gospel work in Nogales and he will be here in October with his wife. He writes that several friends of his may come out here for their health. THE VIDEITE has had several inquirers of late from eastern people in reference to the sanitarium here. In answer to many of them we will say that Nogales is high and dry and has one of the healthiest and most equitable climate in the world. A fine roomy sanitarium is here where people can go and receive first class nursing and medical treatment. The altitude of the town is a little over 4,000 feet. It is cool in summer and warm in winter. There are about 3,000 people in the town on both sides of the line and the sanitary condition is very good.
